

A vertical photograph of a tree trunk covered in moss, surrounded by green foliage. The tree trunk is the central focus, running vertically from the bottom to the top of the frame. It is covered in a thick layer of green moss, with some darker, brownish patches of bark visible. The background is filled with out-of-focus green leaves and branches, creating a soft, natural setting. The lighting is bright and even, suggesting a sunny day in a forest.

Tea Inspired Poetry

*Willow branches graze the grass,
As I sit in the shade drinking tea.
A note from a flute blows clearly,
Mingling with the sound of rain.
I could sit here alone forever,
And still I'd never feel lonely.*
