As you can see, we have a new printer. We are very excited about this! Soon we will have certification, establishing that this magazine is printed exclusively on recycled paper and with soy-based inks!

If you are serving tea to large groups on a regular basis and would like some promotional tins of Elevation tea to hand out at your gatherings, please contact us about spreading the Global Tea Hut love!

Don't forget, we are broadcasting live videos at the beginning of every month on our Facebook page. This is a great way to connect with us, learn together and ask any and all questions. Check it out!

We are offering free Light Meets Life cakes to authors whose submissions are accepted in Global Tea Hut. Let us know if you are interested! Also let us know if there are any topics you want to see in future issues.

Along with the color-coded labels, we have also changed the glue on the tea tin labels so that from now on you can peel the label off easily without leaving any white sticky stuff, and reuse the tins—to take tea out on a picnic, share some tea love with a friend or store your favorite teas for later.

There are still a few open spaces for this year's Annual Global Tea Hut Trip to Anhui. If you are interested in learning more about the itinerary or want to fill out an application, check the website for details.

Wu De will be in New York in June, with many workshops in Brooklyn and a few other locations. Check the website for more details and locations:

Center News

Before you visit, check out the Center's website (www.teasagehut.org) to read about the schedule, food, what you should bring, etc. Wu De will be traveling a lot in 2017, so check his schedule on the site if you are interested in seeing him while you are here at the Center.

We have made a lot of effort to solidify the schedule and experience at the Center, including creating a curriculum and taking steps towards the course schedule that will define Light Meets Life when it is built.

We are still open to having one or two more long-term residents at the Tea Sage Hut. We are especially looking for those with experience in photography/videography. If you have these or other skills to contribute and can work out your own visa situation, please send us an email for more details.

We are going to host a ten-day tea course at the Center on tea and Qi Gong, starting on Sept. 12th.

March Affirmation

This is my practice.

Am I willing to face whatever comes through the door? This is my life, as it is. There is always room for gratitude. And there is always the chance to orient towards growth, facing whatever life puts before me as fuel for my growth.
