

HEAVENLY BLOSSOM

Raise a bowl in celebration, for this is our third Classics of Tea issue! This time we are exploring the Ming Dynasty, with translations of four Chajin from the time, as well as some insightful commentary from renowned scholars. And we have a gorgeous and unique tea to sip along the way!

*Love is changing the world
bowl by bowl*

FEATURES

13 INTRODUCTION TO MING TEA SUTRAS

15 TEA MANUAL

By Zhu Quan (written 1440)

21 BOOK OF TEA

By Qian Chunnian

Edited By Gu Yuanqing (1487–1565)

29 MING CHINA MEETS RENAISSANCE EUROPE

By James Norwood Pratt

33 SUPERFLUOUS THINGS

By Wen Zhenheng (1585–1645)

39 A REQUIRED TASTE

By Michelle Huang

49 NOTES ON TEA

By Wen Long (written 1630)

53 EMPEROR MING TAIZU & THE ABOLITION OF CAKED TEA

By Steven D. Owyong

TRADITIONS

03 TEA OF THE MONTH

"Heavenly Blossom," 2016 Green Tea
& Blossoms, Mingjian, Nantou, Taiwan

61 TEA WAYFARER

Kaelen Ohm, Canada

神聖綻放

© 2017 by Global Tea Hut

All rights reserved.

No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or otherwise, without prior written permission from the copyright owner.